2003 Junior Put-in-Bay Regatta
RULES OF CONDUCT
PARENTAL ACKNOWLEDGMENT FORM

10:30 p.m. Curfew: Each member and his/her chaperone is responsible for seeing that competitors enter and remain in their sleeping rooms by 10:30 P.M. with lights out by 11:00 p.m. Same sex visitation between rooms is allowed until 10:30 p.m. coed visitation in hotel rooms is NOT permitted at any time. When chaperones are sure that all their competitors are accounted for he/she shall enter the date, time and club name on the official "Sign In" list at the hotel desk. In the event of bad weather and/or canceled races, the competitors are the sole responsibility of the club chaperones. The hotel requires all competitors to be supervised at all times they are present.

Competitors may NOT drive automobiles on the island during I-LYA 2003 Junior Race Week. The hotel is within walking distance of all events so competitors shall not be transported by anyone during the regatta. The NOWHEELS rule is in effect for the duration of the regatta- no skateboards, no bicycles, no scooters, no roller blades, etc. Automobiles may not be driven on the Island by a competitor after they have registered or before 6:00 a.m. Friday, July 25th. Parking is limited at PIBYC, NO cars, boats or trailers are permitted on the PIBYC grounds until after 6:00 a.m. Sunday, July 20th. All trailers will be stored in a designated area off site.

Alcohol & Drugs: Consumption of alcohol or any non-prescription drug or controlled substance is strictly prohibited. If a competitor must take medication, prescribed by a physician, the parent or chaperone must inform the committee upon registration, in writing. Violators of this rule will be sent home and his/her club will be banned from the I-LYA 2004 Junior Championships.

Guest responsibility: Crews will be housed for five nights at the Islander Inn and must furnish their own towels. All housing will be chaperoned. Competitors being housed on the Island enjoy a privilege, not a "right". They are personally responsible for maintaining the condition of their assigned room and its furnishings until check out on Friday morning. Food, drinks or smoking are NOT permitted in the rooms at any time. Horseplay or Hazing resulting in abuse will not be tolerated. Violations can lead to dismissal from the event and financial responsibility for damages.

Listed below are specific items of concern for each competitor:

1. Please do not dry towels on the furniture.
2. Towels are NOT supplied by the hotel. You must furnish your own.
3. Deal with trash appropriately during lunch on the water.
4. Please bus your own tables at all meals and be sure to leave the grounds of the Put-in-Bay Yacht Club and the hotel cleaner than when you got there.
5. Always act like ladies and gentlemen AT ALL TIMES!

Meals paid for in the Registration Fee include: (4) four breakfasts, (4) four lunches and (4) dinners (Wednesday night is off site team dinner, there will be no dinner served at Put-in-Bay Yacht Club on Wednesday night.) This includes Sunday's Icebreaker and Thursday's Awards Banquet. Meals will be served at Put-in-Bay Yacht Club except for the Awards Banquet, which will be at Tippers.

I accept I-LYA's invitation to sail in the Junior Bay Week 2003. By accepting this invitation, I agree to comply with the restrictions on drinking and the use of illegal drugs, and with the 10:30 p.m. curfew for the entire event. I also agree to share in the responsibility for making the event run smoothly both on and off the water, and I will participate in special events and programs provided for me. In particular, I will respect that others are also taking this championship seriously, I will respect property that is not mine, I will respect the efforts of the event hosts and I will respect and show appreciation for The Islander Inn and Put-in-Bay Yacht Club.
